

OBJECTIVE

The objective of the Indian Veterinary Congress is to organize a congregation of activities covering all aspects and subjects of Veterinary science. The main aim of the congress is to develop Indian Leadership in Veterinary Science to make our Veterinarians competent for their global recognition in research, education and transfer of technologies

THE HOST INSTITUTE

Sri Venkateswara Veterinary University, Tirupati was established under an Act of AP Government with three faculties of Veterinary, Fishery and Dairy Science and started functioning from 15.7.2005. A total of 28 institutions comprising of Colleges, Polytechnics, Research stations and Extension units are functioning to fulfill the mandate of the University. The holy town, Tirupati is located 550 km south of Hyderabad, 145 km north of Chennai and 248 km east of Bengaluru. The University administrative office is 15 km from the Renigunta airport, 5 km from Tirupati Railway Station & 6 km from bus stand.

THE CITY

Tirupati town located at the foot hills of Tirumala, the abode of Lord Venkateswara attracts lakhs of pilgrims from all over the world and it is a well known educational hub of Andhra Pradesh with six Universities located in the town. Tirupati is well connected by road, rail and air with important cities of the country. The ambient temperature during February will be between 20-32°C. Tirupati is considered one of the holiest Hindu pilgrimage sites because of Tirumala Venkateswara Temple, besides other historical temples, and is referred to as the "Spiritual Capital of Andhra Pradesh". Tirupati has been selected as one of the hundred Indian cities to be developed as a smart city under Smart Cities Mission by Government of India.
